

Yehoshua (Shuki) Raz

Education:

BA in Economics - Haifa University, Israel

MSc in Industrial Management - Israeli Technion, Israel

MBA, specializing in Contract and Acquisition Management - Florida Institute of Technology, USA

General:

More than 30 years of experience in financial, commercial, marketing, and general management within large international companies with focus on the natural resources, infrastructure & energy market. From 2002 until 2008, CEO of Bateman Litwin N.V. (BNLN) – an international contracting and engineering group (employing more than 2000 employees). Accountability for taking the group from USD 50 million turnover to more than USD 800 million in 4 years and for the successful building of financial packages of more than US$ 1 billion in co-operation with international banks, export agencies, and other funds institutes such as: EBRD, IFC and the World Bank.

Since mid 2008, works as LR Group's Director of Project & Structure Finance and also leads the Energy & Metals Divisions in the Group.

Since May 2009, Founder & Director of ClalSun. ClalSun builds, owns, finances, operates and maintains solar photovoltaic power plants with the purpose of selling electricity to national grids, electric companies and end users.